

The July Brouillette Beat

"I am a Canadian, free to speak without fear, free to worship in my own way, free to stand for what I think right, free to oppose what I believe wrong, or free to choose those who shall govern my country. This heritage of freedom I pledge to uphold for myself and all mankind." ~ John Diefenbaker

"We have it all. We have great diversity of people, we have a wonderful land, and we have great possibilities. So all those things combined there's nowhere else I'd rather be." ~ Bob Rae

"There are no limits to the majestic future which lies before the mighty expanse of Canada with its virile, aspiring, cultured, and generous-hearted people." ~ Winston Churchill

"When I'm in Canada, I feel this is what the world should be like." ~ Jane Fonda

"It is wonderful to feel the grandness of Canada in the raw, not because she is Canada but because she's something sublime that you were born into, some great rugged power that you are a part of." ~ Emily Carr

"I am deeply moved by the warmth and courage of the Canadian people which I felt so strongly during my recent visit to your country. Your support of the struggle against apartheid restored me in my journey home and reassured me that many just people around the world are with us." ~ Desmond Tutu

July Funnies:

How can you increase the heart rate of your 70-year-old husband?

Tell him you're pregnant!

What do you call a snake wearing a hard hat?

A boa constructor.

Why did the man get fired from the orange juice factory?

Lack of concentration.

A senior gentleman is sitting at a bar when a young woman walks in.

The senior gentleman gets up, shuffles over to her, leans in, and asks,

"So... do I come here often?"
